Illustrations

Illustrations, final notes, etc. can go here. Place cursor on blank pages and hit delete to get rid of extra pages. Make sure that Illustrations starts on an odd page – add a blank page if necessary to obtain an odd page number in the upper right hand corner of this page.

Your book should end with an even page number. Each piece of paper constitutes 2 pages (page 1 and page 2, for example). Add a blank if necessary.

Easier eding is done with the Style window opened. Click on the “Stylist On/Off” button on the top of the Open Office page, then when you click on any page you see the style it is in. Then you can right-click on the entry in the stylist to select 'modify'. Then you can change the style. Keep a copy of this original and update other copies until you achieve the style you prefer. Good luck!
