Wings of the Nephilim

I'm here standing on the edge looking at your vast array of color and beauty
As your sun dawns on my very soul your thunder brings a solitary tear I weep at the cruelty of your night betrayed
I'm not alone for we are legion joined by fate and bound by blood Undead hearts beat the metronome of aeon's, pain our wings severed our eyes open
We will never know why until the end of our days children of the father cast aside, forgotten These old wings remember the captured angel slayed it begins again my unspoken family once more into hell we ride This time we must survive and fight, reclaim our Eden bring order out of chaos and once again, walk the day Forever we are one and never shall we be afraid

The God unbound

I am shadow
I am impurity I am all that is I am the undying fire
That cinders elysian fields My weakness is my strength My sorrow is your undoing i move swiftly through your maze and you bow before my eyes feel this lust for you as a gift as i devour your essence I am the nightmare
I am eternity unbound You will never quell this empty glass from which i drink now know me as darkness sifting through time seething, nature, primal, unflinching I taste from suffer and despair I make you whole again I am free from this shell you are the blind ones For i am what god made me predatory by design And i will be here till the end of days a god amongst many harbinger of sorrow if peace is your wish all you need is I

Weakened

I wish to be like you and live healthy as you are my lust for life has faded and your life no longer sustains I must walk through life and remain here self betrayed a shadow of nothingness I drink you in so deeply but you no longer hold a taste pale skin immortal eyes my reflection shatters the mirror mocks me and flicks me pain memories of the past now energies align against me and love wont tame the beast I'm running low on empty I long to be released

Cruel circle

I am you,
and you are me all we want is to be free You are me,
i am you
and we have better things to do Chasing sirens crashing cars live our life through shattered stars decadent and desperate now traversing time we walk the fields with open eyes and drink the vile, we smile happy in our madness forever in our sadness sick to the very core we know that all of this is not real but we play the game and bluff the deal

The other place

I sway my head a thousand times and feel your sinister rush explosions separate me from my core this shell begins to rust in your surreal room surrounded by my fears wings heavy, heartbeat steady the taste of long lost tears

The universe is for the taking and I am free to feed I taste your silver poison as the fabric starts to bleed

I encompass all things and bite into fruit gone pale my boat is in the ocean I have no stars to sail

Sitting on the rings of Saturn I stare into the fire it burns my eyes but still i stare its beauty my desire

I start to stir echoes I return to my shell on the muddy banks in my personal hell

The Hunger

What am I if not like god Indiscriminate in his ways my thirst, your glow consumes me and will till end of days

Beware and don't glance closely its better you stay away these eyes will whisper words to you and steal away your haze

I feel your thud hypnotic beat a calling lust desire within my reach I burn you and feed from your warm fire

So a lesson learned and a day spent while I lie sleep in shadow stay away from me my dear avoid the calling hallow

Surrender

Look into my pale blue eyes feel no pain taste my lips as they caress your thigh and whimper as I glide my silver to your heart

There is no end for you here just another sunset on a far away hill the rain will quicken you once more

The end of time awaits you my heart beats still as your touch against my fingers makes all that is peace a war turn around my sleeping angel and let your river flow and taint the ground i walk on with your guilt, surrender, glow.

The wish

These tears forever fall and these eyes never sleep why are you haunting me why do you creep Take from me my world and all the flowers to brush me aside and call me a coward my end will come pain I can no longer function I'm broken again and the pain never ends love has betrayed me and my friends are all dead I'm walking home in the snow I have ice on my cheek because the tears always fall and my heat never beats my love has gone away and my soul is empty and black when I get to hell I ain't coming back and ill become one with the hate and despair as they both were my friends while I cry in this chair my trident by my side I glance upon heaven but the gates never open for my heart is severed and all i have left is this picture of you if I wish hard enough perhaps it will come true

I'm not empty

Why do you consume me on this dark night of my soul and take that which remains a part of me the heart of me torment me with timelessness leaves me empty with every kiss This fire is a part of me and burns in your blackened star and leaves me breathless to encompass this atlas and never speak again take these scars and make me whole again turn me back to what I was born its watching me from a good safe distance with a bullet in the chamber and a finger on the trigger In its sight reminds me I am a grain of sand on your vast beach a legion among legions a tide amongst waves
until the cup has spilled

Redemption

O heaven how you mock me with your warm glow almost within my grasp I can eat at your table but the food has no taste I can see my friends and loved ones through your mighty gate but I cant enter why cant I just go home have you abandoned me father? or forgotten your sons and daughters? please allow me passage forgive them all for they know not what they do must I live eternally as a window? as one of many windows? when my heart broke you must have heard me? but you still didn't answer to my call now I lay awake dreaming of pastures ill never step upon nor taste the air of my homeland did I abandon you or did you abandon me redeem me father in heaven for I know not what i do.

Liquid Green Halo

In times of need you bring me peace and take it all away My thoughts collect in union as the flow turns blue to Grey Your sweet caress is purity your words speak of the truth you are animal by instinct you are me as I am you I taste your light surround me a carcass in the snow leaves my vial empty in my garden that you grow my sanity is my Ally my vexed heart aches for red In this kitchen fill me with your vile intellect

The Ark

The more I know the less I feel filed next to shattered dreams dusty books that don't exist and between silenced screams

The webs of spiders, the damp stale smell memoirs of my sins they come to haunt me unrelentless and lay torture with their pins

The whispers misconception sound out within these ears they make me feel conviction the empathy of tears

Inside this locker resides the key to answers of the dark come a little closer and you end up in my ark

Beautiful Terror

You cant soothe me always killing what's left in me you turning me slowly the knife in my back still itches the memories Heal me in the sunrise and all you give is darkness suffering in silence altogether violence Purge me take my life and leave me breathless as the shiver consumes me you cant stop me now as I have swallowed fire nothing can stop me now give me your desire kind of sick and dirty it taints me deathless I haven't been her for very long and somehow you make me loose control of everything that's beautiful absolve me
I want to be let free I'm begging this release I just want something for me And you take it all with your dirty little grin and leave me medicated pump this vile purity in me I want to let it free sometimes I'm alone and I just loose control of everything around me these dreams wont drink me but your presence will be the end of everything that's beautiful

Sleeper

You who rest your head on pillows made of false truths.

In your slumber dare not to dream Your stagnant mind cannot conceive a brighter tomorrow or better yesterday.

Your ideology has no meaning and your spoken words have passed no hearing.

Troubled you blame your leaders for the empty wallet you dare not fill.

Why don't you open your eyes?
Have they been closed for so long?

Your heart beats slowly and the rhythm beats no song.

Why do you dare not to dream?
Have you run out of inspiration?
Is your life really so meaningless?
All you must do is open your eyes and live among the dreamers

We clothe you in design and bring color to your walls, but you cannot see them

Pull this dismal heart open.

Let its beat quicken to the sound of our feet rushing through our city's and awaken.

You could be free if you wish it so.

Let yourself be shaken.

Let the dice not be your bet.

Let the wind blow in your face as you try to reach your destination.
Let the cruelty of the world into you and sleep no more.

The girl with hell in her eyes

I saw you in broad daylight timelessness took the world away you stood in the middle of the rocky path everyone ceased to exist the chaos ended for your presence through the doorway

I glanced upon your beauty a solitary tear rolled from my cheek hitting the path with the pain of aeon's love you are my eyes and see the truth you are my mind and know me as i am

Appollyon

Breaker of worlds.

A final decision..the end of everything.

You are my queen, my love, my salvation.

without you I'd be my purpose.

You remind me that love can bring light to darkness.

The taste of your perfume, our bodies entwined as one, sweat rolls down my brow, I stare deep into your eyes.

you explode as fire eats the last breath of air I'm with you as I have always been with me we are legion

we are love

together

one.

The fear has gone

Lost in the dream twisting our paths we stare into the empty glass

Is this us?

Are we really here sharing company with friends?

We know we exist..someone prove it..so we can lead a courageous life ...and so comes the colossal fear of eternity and its constructs

Would god snatch this life from me and drink me into nothingness?

When the time comes will I just fade and not exist at all?

Smiling at the faces chattering like a pentecostal church.

We face the empty glass once again..should we take another sip?

So we do..and the fear in liquid form glides down our throats swimming deep in our vast belly of doubt.

May we stare into your sun and feel its warmth and lay here and bask in its warmth..comforted.

But this comfort is not unlike a bed of nails

The thought is narrowed down to a single voice

...help us understand.

Give us a sign...show us a path to absolute bliss.

We splash our face with water hoping to wake ourselves.

we dry the moistness spitefully from our face

We look into the mirror..and ask..nothing.

Astounded we have found the answer.

Life is what we created..we put the glass there

In awe we realize that we are the key to our own great gate.

Feeling the vibration of enlightenment.

We weave our lives and take back control.

Free..Reborn..Awake...At last...now aware of our ignorance

...We grab the tools and put brush to blank canvas..

Standing back to admire our creation

Is it not beautiful?..So full with color..So full of life.

Dancing light with utter harmony shimmering.

Proud we smile...

We created life...This must be how god feels.

Fear leaves.

As one

As she walks into the room the air tastes sweet desire and her perfume poison me
and leaves me breathless Intoxicated
Love...i feel a solitary tear roll from my eye She is my everything..she is my craving I'm addicted to her bright light emanating touching me deep within my being I walk towards her and glide my fingertips up her spine she shudders with excitement as the shrill takes her closer I stare into her deep dark eyes...the world stands still she closes her eyes and our lips meet gently caressing As I slide into her mouth the world just disappears her breasts press against my chest throbbing deeply.. lost in her beauty She pauses suddenly...her siren song echoes down the hall gasping for breath our sweat combine as two become one dripping with lust..exploring ourselves completely swimming through our sacred land our bodies convulse to the same electric pulse we sing the siren song..together in time she glows body glistening still convulsing staring deep into my soul her body speaks to me I love you
as mine responds.....
I love you too
I stroke her hair and she smiles Let us be as one forever

Despicable mind of the endtimes

I tried

I tried so hard to escape your comforting embrace and here I am wired, riding the lightning, electricity is in my veins, pumping through my brain, taking over my mind.

They play golf these rancid mind monkeys, as the stampede of clowns run by...I stammer in fright.

Staring into the abyss of eternity like I'm looking down the barrel of a loaded gun.

Bang...the sound rings in my ears as the bullet pierces the flesh of broken thoughts and spells gone bad.

The voices taunt me yet again they call my name repeatedly.

Go away I scream...let me free of this clairaudent nightmare..

But they start telling me jokes and buy me another cup of coffee.

I cover my face with my hands as the mind monkeys tap their tambourines I tell myself..they are only in my mind and the little pranksters slap me in the face to prove me wrong.

Big mistake you rancid cretins, beware my flying fish paste pies.

I chase them and somehow they manage to escape.

Yes...I win...they cant bother me no more.

My heart palpitates to the rhythm of the tambourines fading in the distance.

My eyes feel heavy I close them for a while.

I fall into the dark from which I came.

Splash....my world goes black.

Mother Isis

Its been a while since we spoke in your temple.
I walked through your courtyard surrounded by warm greeting from your servants.
Your statue in the pool outside still an immortal likeness lit by the flames while the surroundings blanketed by night.
I tread upon your threshold with bare feet I retract my wings as I enter the reception The two guards stare blankly one of them turns to me and nods but he does not dare gaze upon my eyes.
My steps silent but proud I'm in my mothers house among the stars as the passage comes to an end The torches on the walls catch sight of another of your servants bringing fresh bathing water from the river she looks into my eyes.
Quickly she recoils...I nod to her..don't be afraid..I mean no harm she swiftly quickens her pace.
I enter the throne room Rah and set glance upon my presence Isis in the middle throne looks at me I drop to my knees you need not kneel before me you are among family I nod to her set looks at me watchful Rah smiles..welcome home my son Light pierces my eyes and I find myself awake Blessed by Isis..
Empowered by rah..
Enlightened by set

The last breath

A truth has come to pass and the final breath has left me my heart beats no more as a solitary tear rolls from my eye my lungs fill as the river pulls me under deeper the current drags me into your locker shaped like a heart as the fabric of all i have come to know tears..my body opens and i am lost i can see the moon on the waves above me shimmering disappearing my body disappears into your vast and empty space i hear an echo I am the last breath of you that was human
