With Mr. NewHeart

By David Hollar

Mr. NewHeart may be used to promote and advertise your business or organization

David's Heart Story

The date is July 12, 1989. David Hollar lies on the emergency room table of George Washington University Hospital in Washington, D.C. He hears a nurse urgently declare, “No pulse, no pressure.” As the doctors and nurses work frantically to save his life, he hears a “heavenly” voice assuring him, “You are not going to die.”

Mr. NewHeart is David's story. He begins with the account of his massive heart attack on March 11, 1989. He tells of his nearly fatal episode of heart arrhythmia and the stress of having an implantable defibrillator in his abdomen for twenty months. David is placed on the transplant list, and he waits over four months for a donor heart to become available. He shares his personal struggle to accept that his chance for a miracle can only occur when another person dies. He takes you inside his emotional and spiritual turmoil as he wrestles with the reality of knowing that someone else's heart will be beating in his chest. He invites you to experience the joy of God's blessing in his life when he received a heart transplant on Easter morning, March 31, 1991.

Mr. NewHeart continues through the following years of blessing and challenge. David's story is one of faith, courage, endurance, victory, miracles, and God's rich blessings.

“This book will resonate with anyone suffering through a long-term illness. It demonstrates how faith, family, and friends can help one overcome great adversity. ‘Mr. NewHeart’ will also be of great benefit to caregivers and to the families and friends of those coping with difficult illnesses.”

P. Jacob Varghese, M.D.;
Director of Coronary Care Unit; George Washington University Medical Center;
Washington, D.C.

Dr. Varghese was David's primary cardiologist at GW.

Summary of Program

Books published by Infinity Publishing may be converted into an ideal give-away to advertise your organization.

Unlike sales brochures, a book is likely to be kept by the receiver. The message will stay with him or her instead of being tossed into the trash.

Your organization's logo can be placed on the front or back cover of the book. A sponsorship page, often in the form of a letter, with your message will be at the front of the book.

Details

A minimum order of 100 books at 50 percent off the cover price ($12.95), along with a setup fee of $50.00 is all that is required to add a sponsorship page at the front of Mr. NewHeart.

For an additional $50.00, the sponsor's logo is added to the front or back cover of books produced for purchase by the sponsor.

Entering into an agreement to purchase 500 or more books entitles the sponsor to a discount of 55 percent off the cover price.

After the initial order, sponsoring organizations may order as many books as needed to ensure they always have books on hand.

Infinity Publishing pays the shipping cost of all orders of 20 books or more to any US location (office, trade show, your option...).

This program is a great opportunity for church and independent bookstores to purchase Mr. NewHeart at a 50% or 55% discount for sale to the public.

It will also serve as an advertisement for your store since the inside page and/or book cover will promote your establishment.

David Hollar would also be happy to participate in a book signing at your bookstore.

Requirements

Sponsorships are nonexclusive and the author must approve the sponsorship page. Additionally, sponsored books are not returnable.
