Quantum Physics + Mantras = Powerful Meditations

Down through the ages there have been stories of the mysterious power of Mantras. Every country in the world has their own set of Mantras.

Mantras were and are used to heal, to protect, to attract love, to attract wealth and even to punish and kill.

Marching armies who chant or sing the same words or songs are sending the powerful energies out in front of them. Vikings used to chant Odin, Odin, Odin as they charged towards their enemies. It is said that the power of Odin's chant caused many an enemy to break and run.

A Mantra, be it a mental intonation, a sing-song, a chant or a full blown shout is all about energy.

In Tibet and India they have prayer wheels with words, symbols, mantras, chants and prayers attached to them. When the wind blows it causes the wheel to spin and pours forth the energy of the written words and symbols.

Windmills

Since windmill technology in this country is growing in popularity we should incorporate the Tibetan prayer wheel technique into the operation.

What if we painted, in 10 foot letters, power words like, 'Peace', 'Love', 'Health', 'Prosperity', and 'God' on the spinning blades of the windmill.

Look at the wonderful and powerful energies that would be sent out into the environment. Anyone reading this article, who has the power to start this campaign - well get on with it!

Where do Mantras get their powerful vibrations from? The Quantum Ocean, Mind of God.

The Age of Aquarius has given us the gift of the Laws of Quantum Physics. These Laws tell us that there exists an infinite ocean of thinking, intelligent energy called the Quantum Ocean. We can view this as the Mind of God.

There is no time, no past, present nor future there. There is no space, nor distance. Only the HERE-NOW!

The Quantum Ocean, Mind of God responds to our thoughts. Our thoughts and words, which are spoken thoughts, pull the un-manifested intelligent energy out of the Quantum Ocean and manifests it as physical energy and part of our reality. Thoughts create physical reality.

All is energy and all is under law.

The Mantras, chants and prayer wheels contain energy and when they are spoken or spun by the wind they pour that energy out into the atmosphere.

The closer the words of the Mantra or prayer wheel match an energy in the Quantum Ocean, the more powerful the manifestation.

You wouldn't sit in your chair and meditate and intone words like 'blah, blah, blooey'. (Like so many of today's modern inane songs. They create chaos and destruction). Rather meditate on words of peace and power.

My Personal Mantras

I personally do my Mantras every night before I retire. I sit in my favorite easy chair and hold my mantra beads in my right hand. I made these Mantra beads by stringing 40 beads on a strong string. I have a large one that I start with, then every ten beads I have a smaller one to count off the 'tens'. The 'tens' are the smallest. Three size beads.

Repetition is powerful and I sit there quietly intoning my Mantras, 40 at a time.

Just think of the millions of Catholics with their Rosary beads. What power.

And the Buddhist with the Buddha beads. What power. Why give all this power away? Use it for yourself!

I choose Mantras that are very powerful, far reaching and suitable for creating, a more powerful future reality for myself.

I Will share four of them with you.

(1) "I am an infinite being dwelling in the light surrounded and supported by spiritual powers."

Look at the powerful key words I am pulling out of the Quantum Ocean, Mind of God and into my reality. What do you put in your psyche before retiring? Rap music? TV nonsense or the News? You are literally destroying any chances for a better future for yourself. What you carry in your aura creates your life.

(2) "I dwell in perfect peace profound, my kingdom now is here and found."

Wonderful peaceful energy for bedtime.

(3) "God Guides
God Provides
God Heals
God Reveals
God Protects
God Perfects."

A constant reminder that I am not in control.

(4) "Absolute Power
Limitless Light
Infinite harmony
Eternal Duration."

If you can think of four more powerful words than these that you would like to manifest into your life - go for it.

Mantras + Power Words + Quantum
Physics+ + Mind of God + Repetition
= Health, Wealth and Happiness.
