LAST DAY

Evolution is speeding up for everyone from ant to astronaut as we are heading towards the final day of the present time spiral as accorded to us by God. It is our purpose to harmonize personal progress with global apocalypse in a positive direction. The DAY is near; whether as prophesied by the Holy Bible (2014), the ACADEMIC ZODIAC or Mayan count (2011).

2005 2007 – 2011 2014 2020

The centrifugal forces of the apocalypse strive to balance the centripetal ones around the pivot points that can be understood as the seven seals. As concern the last day, we know the exact PLACE and we also know the TIME with fair certainty. From the converging omens, we can figure out the unfolding of evolution towards its gravitational point.

PERSONAL REALITY RENDERING

The good side of speeding up your evolution generated the REALITY RENDERING TOOLS. Today you can RENDER YOUR OWN REALITY IN REAL TIME, as instant magick becomes available for everyone. The RTRRT are often integrated as bonus material* within our astrological editions in order to enable every astrologer into creating one's own time instead of succumbing to bad transits. If in the past one could only sit and wait the bad transits to come, today one can stand up and face a future of one's own choice.

The divine has spoken through prophets in announcing that the DAY is near. The super-comets, Eris and the great hole in the sky are important stepping stones in determining the meaning of the last stage in our evolution. This last knock on the door is now. If in the previous years we had omens, towards year 2011 we have certainties. As Uranus enters Cetus, nothing remains the same. The astrological Age of Cetus triumphs both for good and the bad precisely with Uranus aligning with the vernal point in Cetus.

The year 2007 was exceptional as concern the zodiacal conflict between the messianic and diabolic constellations. Jupiter lounged in Ophiuchus as Venus sunk into Hydra. While Ophiuchus (messiah) and Hydra (antichrist) engaged in conflict, the big hole in the sky was discovered. The WMAP cold spot was introduced to astrology by the name of Witchallow. The great void in everybody's horoscope has possibly important biblical background besides an evident twin connection to witchcraft. If we allow for the biblical interpretation, the abyss unfathomable by science may precede creation.

ACADEMIC ZODIAC

Our best asset in working out the latter day map is the ACADEMIC ZODIAC. This zodiac is an accurate rendering of the true planetary positions as observed in the real sky. The 22 zodiacal constellations are the active part of our predictions; thus, the latter day may feature URANUS IN CETUS[†].

PRECESSED ASCENDANT

The eastern ascendant depends on precession. This simple truism was ignored for over 2000 years as concern European astrology. People were not only assigned wrong sun signs, but also impossible ascendants. This error cuts deeper than merely a “two sign error”[‡].

READER'S DIGEST

It is our tradition to involve the reader into our own research and work in progress from the very beginning of our publishing adventure. Numerous editorial previews fill in the space between series of publications. Thus, even readers who are not interested in purchase have the opportunity to be informed in detail about the latest progress in planetary astrology and personal magick[§].

FOR PUBLIC RELEASE

* RTRRT inside!

† The 16 ascendants are of no major importance for the apocalypse. Since 2005 our main interest was focused on super-comets (like Wild), anomalous discoveries (like Eris) and relevant sources (like the Bible). If January 11th 2005 traced the demarcation line between good and evil, 2007 brought them into conflict. The messianic and diabolic constellations fought their last fight in the year 2007, as Jupiter ruled in Ophiuchus while Venus entered Hydra. In the case of Uranus in Cetus, it is only natural that adjusting the ascendant to Cetus triggers important omens as concern doomsday proper.

‡ Two constellations of error are the present estimation (a handy memo for the general reader). If the astrological program says you are a “Scorpio”, you are probably a Virgo, much as a “Capricorn” ascendant will probably reveal itself as Pisces rising in due east. The pseudo-astrologers did not spare even the very spelling of Scorpius and Capricornus. Already from the spelling, it is clear in whose hands we have left astrology for over 2000 years: charlatans. Hipparchus warned but there was no one to listen, or rather, observe the skies for precession. Superstition crept in as soon as genuine observation was obsolete for the purpose at hand: a swindle on both sides: astrologer and client. ASTROLOGERS OFTEN BELIEVE THEMSELVES IN THE THINGS THEY TELL TO THEIR CLIENTS! If you agree that two “sun signs” are too much of an error FOR YOU, then you are standing at the very doors of revelation. The error is not just an error but sabotage by the enemy of man. Astronomers and astrologers as well were easily subdued into framing their futile calculations within a corrupt frame. RTRR is exorcism on planetary level, not merely a wish come true toy for everyone.

§ The astrologer is no longer worried about the bad transits one has to undergo since with the Real Time Reality Rendering Tools, there are no such bad transits at all! The RTRRT offer a quick initiation into simple future-changing procedures. One needs no special gift to manifest the events of one’s choice right upon unpacking one’s favorite RTRRR package! Instant magick has never been so available before. O5, Cascade and the Personal Cosmic Secretary will solve every magickal problem in record time even for advanced occultists. Not only it is possible to have every wish come true but also one can have it in record time (even minutes) with the PCS optimizing the download from the astral domain.
