

The Bully

He or she comes at you
When you are least expected
He comes at you because he is a thief
A thief in the night he comes to steal

Watch out for the bully
Fight and stand strong
Keep the faith and never give up

For the bully targets those
Who are not expectant
Expect a bully to come along
Next time he does
Fight and dare him to mess with you again

Fear is the bully's fuel
Sadness is his goal
Your tears are the bully's reward

He knows not happiness
He knows not fear
He will steal your life
Most of all, his plan is to steal your soul
